

which the association drawn, entered and severally obtained, and it appearing to that such misrepresentations are made and wicked men, to divide the seat the measures now wisely passed of American liberty, anously. That it is the duty of this of every member thereof, and that we and severally persevere, to carry firmly the association of the continental confederacy in observance of the same; and that defeat such purpose, will with its end to the public.

by the third article of the association, ended the disuse of all East India tea, the self, that their constituents, in their severally adhere to this resolution; ficult the disuse of any article, which were familiar, and to study almost impossible, yet they are induced to hope the fully acquiesce in this resolution; and to the world, a loss to their friendly country.

ordinary arrangement having been handled by this colony, the committee conclusions which may probably be in distant places, to the disadvantage of operated; cheerfully embrace the operated by the present meeting; to notify our conduct while they were in office. From itself we know them to have been im-private, faithful, and impartial in public, entitled to the thanks of the whole constituents discharge of the trust it-before, unanimously. That this com-we hereby do, in our own names, and our constituents, sincerely thank them en, whose abrupt dissolution, with all es attending it, does them the greatest return to a private station with the society of the county, and the rest of having honourably acquitted their obligations during their constituent dissolution is a real loss; it is the more as from the manner of it, we can not any of equal worth and character prevailed on, to undertake the suitable employmt, now rendered esof independent spirit and friends; and giving them to unmerited insult.

Signed,
CHARLES RIDGELY, chairman from the minutes.

ERICK ALEXANDER, secy, pro tem.
T G M : H O U S E
Harkins Thompson, from Gibraltar, John Carpenter, from Virginia.

L E A R E D :
John Delafour, for Bristol, Sam Mort, for Bristol.

ber beg leave to inform his cuman-public, that he shall continue a publicasoliciting their favour and patronage, declare, that impartiality, candour, and over his conduct, and hopes, by dil-cation, to make it instructive and enter-leaders.—All pieces of a public nature, attention, and be thought concur-and happiness of the community, will be ved, and inserted gratis, at Public's most humble service.

FREDERICK GREEN.

Annapolis, March 29, 1775. en of the committee of this county, re-meet at the house of Isaac M'Henry, 10th of April next, to choose dep-the general convention, which is to be ay of the same month.

at least must attend.

signed per order of the committee,

ISAAC M'HENRY, clerk.

I have been informed by a man England, of a parcel of books shipped in Dublin, some time in June or July they have not come to hand (as I say, being a stranger in this province). I therefore, to inform any gentleman they may possibly have fallen; and oblige me if they inform Mr. George Richard Poole, in Annapolis, that if her convenient way, who will be secures they may be liable to. The doing only an act of justice to their humble THOMAS LLOYD,
Baltimore the most likely place to retrace to.

I purchased of Agnes Walker, of the of Maryland, a lot containing half n of Staunton, with a wood lot of to the same, for the consideration of ten shillings, current money of Vir-payment of which sum, I together vidper, entered into a bond, payable in some time in the month of March next since the said purchase was made, I had from a certain Samuel Gay, that he de to the said lot and land, and did make any improvement on the said therefore to forewarn all persons from ment on the said bond, as I am desir-by the same until the matter is re-cared up, or until this Agnes Walker together with good security, in one thousand pounds for the security purpose building a merchant mill value to that value. From January last February, 1775.

SIMPSON MATTHEW

C H E R O K E E.
FINE dark bay, well made country horse, apparts fifteen hands high, heads as wide, and is the riding plantation, and covers square this about fifteen miles.

GASSAWAY RAWLINGS.

old with the highest brother, at Mind Nican Reilly, of Ninian, on the 20th day of August last, it came if the next fair day.

WELVE hundred acres of land, lying on Great Seneca creek, near the mouth of Frederick county, Maryland, wherein is three plantations, great quantity of valuable meadow land, and two according good mill lots, the purchaser or purchaser to have immediate possession, giving bond well approved freely, paying the sold day of November 1775, to 10 early interest from the date of the and, if not punctually discharged at, on the 1st of November, old 20th day of November. The land will be laid out lots suitable for the purchasers. Any person inclinable to view the land, before the day of sale, may apply to Ninian Reilly, son of Ninian.

CHARLES BEALL.

away from the subscriber, living in Calvert county, near Lyon's corner, a certain Joseph Row, about five feet high, appears to be about thirty six and thirty years of age in his 20s. With him all is wearing apparel which consists of a frock, a thick coat, a red waistcoat, a pair of bear-skin breeches, a pair of mix coarse yarn stockings, and an old woolen waistcoat; he is very remarkable in one of his hands, having lost his thumb one of them & wears his other which is very thin; he is very much given to drink. W. never takes up the said servant, or lectures him, so that I may get him again, that require a reward of forty shillings, paid by GEORGE SMITH.

AN away from the subscriber, living on Fell's point, Baltimore town; an Irish servant man, name John Cethes, about 20 years of age, slim built, spent 5 or 6 months in the country, a smooth face, dark hair tied with a string, and sloop shoulders; old and took with him a half worn hat, a dark brown cloth coat, old leather breeches, a pair of new woollen stockings too short for him, old shoes, steel buckles, cross-bar silk handkerchiefs, and old grey hair; has worked some time at the turning bu-ness. Whoever takes up the said servant in the country, and secures him, for his master can have no, shall have thirty shillings, and if out of the country three pounds; and reasonable charges, paid by

WILLIAM DAVIS, Blackmaker, N. B. It is supposed that he may be along with a man that shows the slight of hand, at George town, or some other public place.

FIFTEEN POUNDS REWARD:

AN away last night from the subscriber, living on Elk-Ridge, in Anne-Arundel county, Maryland, two English convict servants, viz.

William Green, a short well set fellow, about 5 feet 6 inches high, of a brown or rather yellow complexion, short black curled hair, had on a good suit a country tow linen shirt, a white kersey long-cuffed jacket, a blue broad cloth ditto under it, lined with white thread, white kersey breeches patched with dyed yellow kersey, country knit stockings; country made shoes nailed, and a pair of pumps just worn. He is a West country fellow, and speaks that dialect.

John Peacock, a shumaker by trade, a likely well made fellow, about 5 feet 8 inches high, brown complexion, dark hair and eyes, is very alkaline, an art-of cunning fellow, is very officious in brewing his skill in drawing pictures and making print letters; pretends to understand the painting business, writes a tolerable good hand, and its prob. he may forge passes for himself and the others had on when he went way in old coat has, an osnaburg shirt, a dyed kersey jacket, a cotton ditto without sleeves, kersey breeches, country knit stockings, country made shoes with plaid buckles, the silver chiefly worn off, an iron collar and iron on his ankles, but its likely he will get them off by the assistance of the other fellow, and may steal other cloths.

Whoever takes up Peacock, and settles him in any place, so that his master gets him again, shall have, if taken 20 miles from home, forty shillings, if 40 miles 60 pounds, and if out of the province ten pounds, and reasonable charges if brought home. And for Green, if taken 20 miles from home twenty shillings, if 60 miles forty shillings, and if a greater distance five pounds, and reasonable charges if brought home, by

JOHN MOOD.

MORDECAI SELBY.

CAMP to the plantation of Richard Cromwell, lieving in Anne-Arundel county, near Mr. Drury's ferry, on the 9th instant, a brown horse, about hands and a half high, ten years old, with some white hairs on his bridle place and hoofs, long bushy mane and tail, no brand, and in tolerable good order.

The owner may have him again, on proving his property, and paying charges.

JOHN MOOD.

MORDECAI SELBY.

HERE is at the plantation of Anthony Wilcoxen, living in Frederick county, taken up as a stray, small sorrel gelding, about 5 years old, a drowsy horse, has a large star on his forehead, he has been bitten, but no visible brand. The owner may have him again, on proving his property, and paying charges.

JOHN MOOD.

MORDECAI SELBY.

HERE is at the plantation of Richard Royle, in

Baltimore county, Potapico, Lower Hundred, a

bay mare, about 13 hands high, 12 or 13 years old, marked with the saddle, and paces. The owner may have her again, on proving his property, and paying

charges.

JOHN MOOD.

MORDECAI SELBY.

HERE is at the plantation of Richard Royle, in

Baltimore county, Potapico, Lower Hundred, a

bay mare, about 13 hands high, 12 or 13 years old,

marked with the saddle, and paces. The owner may

have her again, on proving his property, and paying
charges.

JOHN MOOD.

MORDECAI SELBY.

HERE is at the plantation of Richard Royle, in

Baltimore county, Potapico, Lower Hundred, a

bay mare, about 13 hands high, 12 or 13 years old,

marked with the saddle, and paces. The owner may

have her again, on proving his property, and paying
charges.

JOHN MOOD.

MORDECAI SELBY.

HERE is at the plantation of Richard Royle, in

Baltimore county, Potapico, Lower Hundred, a

bay mare, about 13 hands high, 12 or 13 years old,

marked with the saddle, and paces. The owner may

have her again, on proving his property, and paying
charges.

JOHN MOOD.

MORDECAI SELBY.

HERE is at the plantation of Richard Royle, in

Baltimore county, Potapico, Lower Hundred, a

bay mare, about 13 hands high, 12 or 13 years old,

marked with the saddle, and paces. The owner may

have her again, on proving his property, and paying
charges.

JOHN MOOD.

MORDECAI SELBY.

HERE is at the plantation of Richard Royle, in

Baltimore county, Potapico, Lower Hundred, a

bay mare, about 13 hands high, 12 or 13 years old,

marked with the saddle, and paces. The owner may

have her again, on proving his property, and paying
charges.

JOHN MOOD.

MORDECAI SELBY.

HERE is at the plantation of Richard Royle, in

Baltimore county, Potapico, Lower Hundred, a

bay mare, about 13 hands high, 12 or 13 years old,

marked with the saddle, and paces. The owner may

have her again, on proving his property, and paying
charges.

JOHN MOOD.

MORDECAI SELBY.

HERE is at the plantation of Richard Royle, in

Baltimore county, Potapico, Lower Hundred, a

bay mare, about 13 hands high, 12 or 13 years old,

marked with the saddle, and paces. The owner may

have her again, on proving his property, and paying
charges.

JOHN MOOD.

MORDECAI SELBY.

HERE is at the plantation of Richard Royle, in

Baltimore county, Potapico, Lower Hundred, a

bay mare, about 13 hands high, 12 or 13 years old,

marked with the saddle, and paces. The owner may

have her again, on proving his property, and paying
charges.

JOHN MOOD.

MORDECAI SELBY.

HERE is at the plantation of Richard Royle, in

Baltimore county, Potapico, Lower Hundred, a

bay mare, about 13 hands high, 12 or 13 years old,

marked with the saddle, and paces. The owner may

have her again, on proving his property, and paying
charges.

JOHN MOOD.

MORDECAI SELBY.

HERE is at the plantation of Richard Royle, in

Baltimore county, Potapico, Lower Hundred, a

bay mare, about 13 hands high, 12 or 13 years old,

marked with the saddle, and paces. The owner may

have her again, on proving his property, and paying
charges.

JOHN MOOD.

MORDECAI SELBY.

HERE is at the plantation of Richard Royle, in

Baltimore county, Potapico, Lower Hundred, a

bay mare, about 13 hands high, 12 or 13 years old,

marked with the saddle, and paces. The owner may